

Young Professionals Council of the Southwestern Indiana Builders Association

Be a part of SIBAs NEWEST Council!

The Young Professionals (YP) Council of the Southwestern Indiana Builders Association strives to educate and develop the next generation of SIBA's leaders. The YP Council offers an environment for educational, networking and career growth opportunities for Young Professionals affiliated with SIBA.

This group will meet once per month for a short networking meeting and program. Programs will be led by industry professionals both inside and outside of SIBA. Meetings will be fun, casual and informative. This is YOUR time to create lasting relationships with members and non-members that are in similar stages of their careers.

Both YPs (under age 45) and long-time members of the industry are encouraged to join.
